AMEND Senate Bill No. 1388*

House Bill No. 1815

By deleting SECTION 4, § 4-5-108, and by substituting instead the following:

§ 4-5-108.

(a) Any legislation that, in whole or in part, amends or repeals any provision of this chapter; and any legislation that reestablishes, restructures or otherwise delegates any type of rulemaking authority to any new or pre-existing governmental entity to which this chapter applies, shall be referred to the government operations committee by the speaker of each house prior to its referral to the appropriate standing committee. The government operations committee of each house shall review the legislation and shall recommend that the legislation be considered for passage or shall recommend against passage to the appropriate standing committee.

(b) Except when the government operations committee is designated as the appropriate standing committee, nothing contained in the provisions of this section shall be construed to authorize the government operations committee to delay or prevent the referral of such legislation to the appropriate standing committee by withholding its recommendation.

(c) Nothing contained within the provisions of this chapter shall be construed to prevent the government operations committee from being considered as an appropriate standing committee to consider legislation that amends or repeals any provision of this chapter.
